

MONEY Skill Bingo

Instructions:

- Read each statement below.
- Mark the box if you feel the statement describes you or something you enjoy.
- Try to get five in a row—horizontally, vertically, or diagonally!
- Be ready to share examples or stories for any skill you mark.

M	O	N	E	Y
I am good at fixing things.	I can calm people down.	I enjoy working with data.	I am comfortable speaking in front of groups.	I like organizing events or activities.
I pay attention to details.	I am a good listener.	I enjoy solving math problems.	I work well in teams.	I can stay calm in stressful situations.
I am creative and like coming up with ideas.	I am good at following directions.	FREE SPACE	I enjoy helping others learn.	I can manage my time well.
I like using computers or technology.	I am good at making decisions quickly.	I enjoy reading instructions and manuals.	I can lead a group or project.	I am good at persuading others.
I am comfortable asking for help when needed.	I enjoy building or creating things.	I can handle criticism and feedback.	I like analyzing information and finding patterns.	I am good at staying organized.

Tips for Success

- Think about both "hard skills" (like using technology or solving math problems) and "soft skills" (like listening or calming people down).
- There are no right or wrong answers—this is about discovering your own strengths!
- After you play, discuss with classmates which skills are most important in different jobs or situations.
- Remember, everyone has a unique mix of skills—celebrate yours!